Soyoung
translated it

Jin
did all the rest.

(Well, Splicer pre-cleaned it)

Help needed!

So, a new translator, Soyoung, has joined us. She will be in charge of our first new project, Flying in the darkness. Jin will be cleaning and has graciously agreed to typeset and redraw the first chapter to ensure the release.

But we need a redrawer and a typesetter for this. This series is super-easy compared to DICE, so we won't ask you for serious proof of your skill or anything, but applicants need to know how to use Photoshop. We might even take your word for it, because beggars can't be choosers, but in that case you will be "on probation" until you show us you can typeset or redraw a chapter. Or we can ask you to try your hand on a sample page.

We'll be doing this in a leisurely pace, so don't fear tight deadlines. But please be ready to work consistently on this.

Contact Splicer at splicer (dot) nil (at) gmail (dot) com for details. Thanks!
